

CODE OF CONDUCT AND PARTY RULES

Code of Conduct

- * Smoking is allowed only in designated areas.
- * Anyone appearing to be intoxicated or mentally impaired may be refused admittance.
- * Respect the privacy of others. What is seen or heard at the event stays at the event.
- * Cell phones and cell phone accessories of any kind, e.g., ear buds and headsets, are not permitted in the workshops or dungeon and must be kept out of sight. Cell phone use is allowed in the vendor and public areas if all camera lenses are covered with blue tape, otherwise they must be used outside of the event area.
- * No cameras, Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs), or other recording devices are permitted within the Event Center.
- * Prostitution, solicitation, and/or negotiation for BDSM services for consideration are illegal and will not be tolerated at the event.
- * All attendees must wear appropriate “vanilla” clothing outside of the event area. This includes the hallways and other public areas of the venue. In addition, “vanilla” behavior is expected within the public areas of the venue. This includes the smoking areas, parking lots, nearby hotels and restaurants, hallways, and any other area where non-attendees may be present.
- * Please refrain from wearing perfume, cologne, or heavy scents.

Party Rules

- * Absolutely no recording devices of any type are permitted in the Dungeon. This includes, but is not limited to, computers, cell phones and related accessories, e.g., ear buds and headsets, cameras, digital and film, and PDAs.
- * Dungeon Monitors (DMs) will be on duty to supervise activities in the play space. Any questions or concerns regarding activities taking place during the play parties should be directed to a DM. All decisions by the DMs are final. There is no appeal process.
- * Clean equipment and surrounding areas after your scene. Wipe equipment down with disinfectant. Cleaning materials will be provided at multiple stations throughout the Dungeon.
- * It is recommended that you bring your own sheets, blankets, or towels, to place on the equipment. These are not provided by the event.
- * The following activities and types of play are prohibited:
  - Gun Play - absolutely no showing or exposing of guns of any type
  - Fire Play - no open flames of any type are allowed
  - Wax Play
  - Scat or water sports play
- * Safer sex practices, including the use of latex or other barriers when body fluids are present, are strongly encouraged. Safe sex supplies including gloves, condoms, and dental dams will be available for use.
- * Blood sport play is allowed only in designated areas. Dispose of sharps in the containers provided. Sharps containers are for sharps only. Dispose of other waste such as, but not limited to, gloves or cleaning materials that may have bodily fluids in the trash cans provided - not in the sharps containers. Do not leave the blood sport area while wearing needles - needles must be kept within the designated blood sport area.
- * Do not handle or touch other players’ toys or personal equipment without permission.
- * Do not intrude into a scene unless specifically invited by the scene participants.
- * Watching scenes from a respectful distance is permitted, but please keep all conversations, laughter, and comments to a minimum. DO NOT talk to players while a scene is progressing unless invited by the players.
- * Please refrain from wearing perfume, cologne, or heavy scents.
