Privacy Policy

The confidentiality of PLA members is important to the PLA. To help our members make informed choices in maintaining confidentiality, we provide this notice explaining our membership information process. To make this notice easy to find, we make it accessible as a link on our website and we reference this link wherever personally identifiable information may be requested to conduct official PLA business.

The Portland Leather Alliance (PLA) is incorporated as an Oregon Nonprofit Corporation. According to the Oregon Revised Statutes, PLA is required to maintain a record of its members that includes "name and address of its members" (ORS 65.771 Section 3).

All PLA membership information exists solely for the purposes of conducting official PLA business. The PLA asks for member information to conduct official PLA business, including:

- To notify members of membership expiration dates and renewal information,
- To deliver monthly Board Meeting Minutes to our membership,
- To deliver updates on PLA activities and events to our membership,
- To ensure that only current members may vote in PLA elections,
- To ensure that only current members obtain member discounts, as available, at official PLA events,
- To correctly identify membership renewals submitted by existing members, and
- To verify legal age of members.

Membership information is managed by the Membership Director appointed by the PLA Board of Directors from among the current Board members (PLA Bylaws, Article VIII – B). PLA does not disclose, sell or rent member information to anyone. Membership information is confidential and will be used in a manner consistent with our privacy policy. Software and information access is restricted to PLA Board members who require the information to fulfill their job function(s) and access to personally identifiable information is limited to only the information required to complete the necessary task for PLA business.

Because many members prefer to receive Board Minutes and PLA event information via email or by phone, members may opt to provide PLA with their email address and/or phone number, in addition to the postal address required by Oregon Statutes. When providing PLA with contact information, members should keep in mind the nature of PLA and its events or activities. We are dedicated to fostering a safe, sane and consensual environment for alternative adult sexuality with a focus on BDSM, Leather, and Fetish lifestyles. The content of our contact reflects this focus. If you do not wish to be contacted because of this content, please notify PLA at contact@portlandleather.org or send written request to: Portland Leather Alliance, 4110 SE Hawthorne #611, Portland, OR 97214.

While we cannot guarantee that loss, misuse, or alteration to information will never occur, we do take precautions to prevent such unfortunate occurrences. All PLA board members associated with the processing of personally identifiable information are required to respect the confidentiality of member information. Software and information is restricted to PLA board members who require the information to fulfill their job function(s) and access to personally identifiable information is limited to only the information to complete a necessary task.
